Introduction and Foreword

For the past decade the promise of connected care design and delivery has been the driving force for healthcare IT marketers. Over the last year the need for fully integrated care technology became mission critical for payers, providers and patients. 2021 presents a host of unknown variables — B2B marketers will continue to evolve as marketing strategies and investment will be fueled by digital content, audience access and connectivity to new demand and lead generation platforms.

Staying ahead of the curve and creating a well-balanced, always on marketing plan will require a continued focus on digitally overcoming a sales process void of face-to-face networking, live pitches, and handshakes.

Research Overview

Together, HIMSS Media and Healthlaunchpad are working to provide insights and translate intelligence into education for healthcare marketers and their teams. The results in our inaugural survey will explore:

- The overall healthcare technology marketing landscape
- Marketing priorities of dedicated healthcare IT marketers
- Areas of unmet educational and resource needs

Additionally, the results in this report uncover tactics, spend levels and specific marketing technologies that marketers across the healthcare landscape are deploying to meet the challenges of driving results.

HIMSS and Healthlaunchpad will continue to explore the challenges and promises impacting marketers in the healthcare industry. By sharing information, connecting peers and responding with action plans informed by insights, we can successfully move beyond ongoing disruption and remove the barriers to fundamental change and marketing innovation.

Methodology

This research was conducted among individuals working in marketing, strategy, or sales positions at healthcare or healthcare technology organizations.

A total of 51 qualified respondents answered the survey. To qualify, respondents had to have a management role at an organization working in a healthcare or healthcare technology organization, and have decision-making or influence over marketing decisions.

This was a blind data collection effort, healthlaunchpad was not identified as a sponsor of the research.
